

CAPÍTULO 2 Ciudades hispanohablantes en los Estados Unidos

Antes de navegar

Imagine that you have been corresponding with a pen pal from Central America. Your pen pal has decided that she or he would like to come to the United States to study and wants to know which regions of the country have the largest concentrations of Spanish-speakers. Look at the map below and shade the sections of the country that you would point out to your friend.

¡A navegar!

Primera parte: ¿Hay más información?

1. Verify the information that you have given your friend. Click on the link entitled El mapa on your screen. Compare your map to the map that appears. Did you point out the correct sections to your friend?

Sí

No

2. Your friend wants more information about major cities from each of the regions where large numbers of Hispanics live. Scroll down the screen until you see a table containing information that is organized by city. Then answer your friend's questions.

- a. Are there any cities listed in which Hispanics make up at least 20% of the total population?
 Sí  No
- b. Are there any cities in which Hispanics comprise more than half of the total population?
