Weather *Active*Folder
Weather wheel and activity cards

Description of precipitation cards precipitation that falls when temperatures are above freezing precipitation that passes through freezing air near Earth's surface, forming ice icy precipitation that grows larger as it is tossed up and down, melting and freezing in layers precipitation formed when air temperatures are so cold water vapor changes directly to a solid